Brunswick's 2026 Distinguished Citizens

Courtesy photo

A total of 183 people gathered at the Brunswick Eagles Club on Sept. 27 to honor 12 individuals selected as Brunswick's 2026 Distinguished Citizens, conferred on those who have made significant contributions to the community. The annual tradition was started 50 years ago. This year's Distinguished Citizens (or their representatives) are, front row, left to right: Doris Barker, Brandon Bowens (grandson of Lillie Morris), Kimberly Miller (granddaughter of Frank Strakonsky Jr.), Mary Lou Green (whose husband, Gene, was also honored), Bob Dozier and Angie Armstrong. Back row, left to right: Police Chief Kevin Grunwell (representing former Chief Tommy Thompson), Dick Goodrich, Dan Roe, Roger Dawson and Dan McLane (great-great-grandson of William W. Wenner).