Midget Football banquet "best ever"

"It was the best banquet we ever had", reported an enthusiastic Bob Ward. About 330 football fans and their kids crowded into the Eagles Lodge last Sunday afternoon, and by all accounts had a wonderful time.

More important was that the kids received a lot of awards, and a lot of applause — which is what the occasion was all about.

Here are the major awards:

Varsity Football — coached by Dale Kenney (head coach), Jerry Ebersole, Clair Ebersole, and Kevin Gordon. Best Offensive Player: Randy Dorsey. Best Defensive Player: Billy Ward. Most Valuable Player: Robbie Daugherty. The Coaches Awards: Chris Booth, Dave Folk, Paul Orye, Darron McCabe, and Dwayne Hollar.

JV Football — coached by Mickey Orye (head coach), Bob Ward, Tom Smith, and Paul Brohawn. Best Offensive Player: Randy Lewis. Best Defensive Player: John Gerstner. Most Valuable Player: Eric Williams. Coaches Awards: Chance Smith, Troy Lloyd, Keith Potter.

Pony Football — coached by Carroll Haugh (head coach), Mark Taylor, Wesley Rice, and Rich Marceron. Best Offensive Player: Timmy Wood. Best Defensive Player: Chris Turvin. Most Valuable Player: Richie Marceron. Coaches Awards: Jason Bartee, Michael Mohler, John Carnes.

Cheerleaders — The grads were given special awards: Robin Bechtol, Kelly Bussell, Melissa Cockerham, Valerie Walker, Chrissy Gerstner, Missy Rice, Amber Dykes, and Jara Bartee. The Coaches Awards went to: Melissa Cockerham, Jodi Bacorn, Crystal Powers, Gina Marinaro, and Kera Lewis.

Carroll Jones has been named the 1983 President of the Brunswick Midget Football League. Wayne Mohler is the Vice President, Peggy Lewis the Secretary, Robbie Simmons the Treasurer, and Joan Gerstner the Financial Secretary. The Board of Directors is composed of Bob Ward, Judy Snoots, Nee Nee Logan, Tom Smith, and Dale Kenney, with Jerry Ebersole as an alternate.
